

Let My People Go

Bloodgood

He's a smile on the face of a killer
A charm on the end of a chain
A hurricane blowing out of it's mind
That washes the ruin with rainHe's a beast that appears to be beauty
A trap just waiting to snap
He's not what he appears to be
He's a con man with a great rapHe feels so clever when he pulls the lever
That makes you part of his show
Evil runs wild with a long lost child
Let my people go!He hides in dirty trash cans and in garbage on the street
Or palaces that belong to kings
But he never hides in the beatHe feels so clever when he pulls the lever
That makes you part of his show
Evil runs wild with a long lost child
Let my people go!
let em' go!He hides in dirty trash cans and in garbage on the street
Or palaces that belong to kings
But he never hides in the beatHe feels so clever when he pulls the lever
That makes you part of his show
Evil runs wild with a long lost child
Let my people go!Evil runs wild with a long lost child
Evil runs wild with a long lost child
Let my people go!Evil runs wild with a long lost child
Evil runs wild with a long lost child
Let my people go!!!
