

Rebound

Laura Bell Bundy

Hey, I've been spending all my time alone
Feelin' sorry for myself since the love is gone
But you're all I want today
I just wonder, can you make me feel that way?
Tell me, boy If I get all over you, can I get over him?
I've been feelin' so blue, give me back my faith in men
Pick me up and lay me down, won't you be my rebound? You gettin the picture, baby?
(Yeah, I get it, girl) I'm not asking you for love or to commit
So, if you like it, you don't have to put a ring on it
(Beyonce, uh, oh)
I don't want to behave
I'm just looking for a man who wants to play
What do you say? If I get all over you, can I get over him?
I've been feelin' so blue, give me back my faith in men
Pick me up and lay me down, won't you be my rebound? I've always followed my heart
But now I think I need a fresh start
I've seen you mopin' around
It might do you some good if you had a rebound If I get all over you, can you get over her?
You've been feelin' so blue, I can make it better for sure
Make it better, make If I get all over you, can we get over them?
We've got nothin' to prove but if we like it we can do it again
Pick me up and lay me down, won't you be my rebound?
