Number One

Adhitia Sofyan

i don't mind if you hate monday we can make it just like a saturday and all the fuss and whine will over as we drive in to the madness with breakfast on the go we'll din on city light did't i tell you to just sit back cause my girl, they all don't matter (any longer) cause you don't even have to try you've already my number one i don't need the mellow tunes and all the lines you've wasted over me i don't mind if time goes to soon we'll stay up all night and make it slower and when the morning comes between us we'll just get ready to start it over
