Don't Go

F.R. David

You Don`t have to sayï»¿ a thing
Your silence is so loud
I know that I did you wrong
(I'm lying it) on the line
As we listen to the rain
And feel the (wind of) change
And feel the (wind of) change

Yet the morning has to come
I've been trying to make you smile
But you're looking at the door
I can see it in your eyes
I hate to see it go away
Got so many things to say

Don't go, I need you so
Oh baby don't you give up on my love
Sayï»¿ you're willing to give it a try
We'll get it right this time

You don`t have to say a thing
Your silence is so loud
All the things I`ve ever done
(Was not to put) youï»¿ down
Many times my mind has changed
But my loving is the same
At this moment I can see
All the things you mean to me

Don't go, I need you so
Oh baby don't you give up on my love
Say you're willing to give it a try
We'll get it right this time

Don't go, I need you so
Oh baby don't you give up on my love
Say you're willing to give it a try
We'll get it right this time
Oh..
Don't go, I need you so

Oh baby don't you give up on my love
Say you're willing to give it a try
We'll get it right this time
Oh..
Oh baby don't you give up on my love
Oh..
We'll get it right this time.
