A Reason to Fight

Disturbed

The image in your eyes, reflecting the pain that has taken you
I hear it in your voice so ridden with shame from what's ailing youI won't give up, so don't give in You've fallen down but you can rise again
So don't give upWhen the demon that's inside you is ready to begin
And it feels like it's a battle that you will never win
When you're aching for the fire and begging for your sin
When there's nothing left inside, there's still a reason to fightLost in your world of lies I find it so hard to believe in you
Can it be real this time, or just a part of this game that we're playing through I won't give up, so don't give in You've fallen down but you will rise again
I won't give upWhen the demon that's inside you is ready to begin
And it feels like it's a battle that you will never win
When you're aching for the fire and begging for your sin
When there's nothing left inside, there's still a reason to fightDon't let it take your soul
Look at me, take control
When going to fight this war
This is nothing worth dying forAre you ready to begin
This is a battle that we are going to winWhen you're aching for the fire and begging for your sin
When there's nothing left inside, there's still a reason
When the demon that's inside you is ready to begin
And it feels like it's a battle that you will never win
When you're raking for the fire and begging for your sin
When there's nothing left inside, there's still a reason to fight
I'll be your reason to fight
Give you a reason to fight
