

Just a Dream

Milk 'n Blues

Somewhere
Somewhere

Somewhere in my dreams
I'm walking down the street
Trying to reach you all the time

I can hardly speak
My heart is on my knees
You are the one I really care

Whispered my name
But you stayed the same
A picture difficult to see

Following the lights
I'm running out of time
Then I remember it's just a dream...

Step by step, I feel like I'm going back
Say that, I ain't gonna crack

Tell the truth, why are you always feeling blue?
I am coming back for you
I am coming back for you

- Harmonica Solo -

I wave and wait
Feel nothing's gonna change
You don't even look at me

I don't understand
So close but still not there
Then I remember it's just a dream...

Step by step, I feel like I'm going back
Say that, I ain't gonna crack
Tell the truth, why are you always feeling blue?

I am coming back for you
I am coming back for you
I am coming back for you
I am coming back for you
I am coming back for you
