

Cry No More

Poco

Sometimes it seems like
You lose when you win
I know just how hard it can be
You take what you have to
And give all you can
But it's just a sad memory So cry no more
What do you want to cry for?
Tears only wash to the shore
So cry no more I am a fine one to talk about cryin'
I've cried some tears of my own
And one thing for certain
When teardrops start falling
The heartache won't leave you alone
