Justice

It's always the same always the same story
"Tell me what, when I can come in"
To a hopeless stroglodyte
But one more time
my answer stands
I swear I mean offecne
But you better learn to read it's all 'bout membership

Hey, for you young and old
Ugly girls and boys
I put you on my list
And make you clap to this Mayhem
But, man, I just don't that trip
Only one can win
And soon you say the same

Four capital letters
Printed in gold
'Cause details make the girls sweat
even more while they're shaking their belt
No need to ask my name
to figure out how cool I am

Four capital letters

'Cause details make the girls sweat
even more while they're shaking their belt
to figure out how cool I am

Can anyone read, anyone feel
That I'm losing my patience
I just came here to bounce
Ladies are waxed
They all now I'm coming

I'm losing my patience
I just came here to bounce

Can anyone read, anyone feel
That I'm losing my patience
I just came here to bounce
Ladies are waxed
They all now I'm coming
I'm losing my patience
I just came here to bounce
