

Fine Story

Nizlopi

Well, well, well, well
Fine story to tell
This lovemaking is heart unbreaking me Oh, you and your big cheeks
Have got me spinning around now
You and your warm mouth have got me
Talking pr, talking profoundly Singing together and I'm closing my eyes
Just to reach you I've been Building bridges too large
Ever since I met you, baby Well, well, well, well
Fine story to tell
This lovemaking is heart unbreaking me Made me brand new man
Fire with a big banner
Well, well, well, well
Fine story to tell Your heart, baby, is just as big as Russia
And I'm, going to see to romance
And you'll be the, you'll be the usher my heads My heads swarming round like a nutter
And trying to mess me up
My heart over boils with desire
And fills up my cup Now, oh
Well, well, well, well
Fine story to tell
This lovemaking is heart unbreaking me Made me brand new man
Fire with a big banner
Well, well, well, well
Fine story to tell It's in the soil now
In the roots too
In my boots wow
All around now On my CD
In my TV
On your lips
They're just as smiling Quietly crying in the rain, falling
And you, bought me out of the cold
Trying just to seek out your name, darling
You, bought me out of the cold Well, well, well, well
Tough story to tell
That lovemaking was damn heart breaking me It made me brand new again
Sat me down with this pen
Well, well, well, well
Fine story to tell Well, well, well, well

Well, well, well, well
Well, well, well, well
Fine story to tell
