

Down Boy

moe.

I never was sad, I never got down
I was relieved 'cause I was so tired
Six years time, it was six too long
Now you were gone, now you were goneHey kid, you're a liar
You better backtrack your story, there's a faulty wire
And nobody wants to listen to you rambling on
It's been a non-stop party ever since you've been goneCorduroy Sam, you better count your money
You got a buck three eighty, sure to being funny
Kicking on your flaws and banging on your walls
Locked up in your closet, beating barrier of the dollsYou ain't bona fide, you got to cover up your tracks
You got miles too high
Driving down the street on your Harley Hog
Bend over backwards like the 'Spine Of A Dog'I never was sad, I never got down
I was relieved 'cause I was so tired
Six years time and it was six too long
Now you were gone, now you were goneNow's not morning time
Looking for a reason to get out of line
You messed my mind and you sang my song
No more time, tired and wrongNo more crazy eyes
Living and giving out a world of lies
King of doggone monkey lines
Showtime not for 'Lord Of The Flies'Goodbye Pallaman
So out of sight you were out of your mind
Did you eat the bar or did the bar eat you?
Good luck doing all the stuff that you doI never was sad, I never got down
I was relieved 'cause I was so tired
Six years time and it was six too long
Now you were gone, now you were goneI never was sad, I never got down
I was relieved 'cause I was so tired
Six years time, it was six too long
Now you were gone and now you were goneI never was sad, I never got down
I was relieved 'cause I was so tired
Six years time, it was six too long
Now you were gone, now you were goneI never was sad, I never got down
I was relieved 'cause I was so tired
Six years time, it was six too long
And now you were gone and now you were goneI never was sad, I never got down
I was relieved 'cause I was so tired
Six years time, it was six too long

And now you were gone, now you were gone I never was sad, I never got down

I was relieved 'cause I was so tired

Six years time and it was six too long

And now you were gone, now you were gone

Now you were gone, now you were gone

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>