Trapt

I can't remember, the last time you cared about anything
The last time you allowed yourself to be seen
So pretentious your lies, unrelenting disguise
Creating tears in your eyes your mind withers and diesPretending to be something you are not
Somewhere in the middle
You are now caught
You've never seen, who you really areNo life breathes in you
All the time you laugh, you wait, you cry
No part of your life is true
All the time your life passes you byThe last time you cared about anything
The last time you allowed yourself to be seen
So pretentious your lies, unrelenting disguise
Creating tears in your eyes your mind withers and diesPretending to be something you are not
Somewhere in the middle
You are now caught
You've never seen, who you really areI don't ever want to see
I don't ever want to be like you
Hollow Man, I don't care what you give
Hollow Man, you can't live like thisI don't ever want to see
I don't ever want to be like you
Hollow Man, I don't care what you give
Hollow Man, you can't live like thisYour voice is just a whisper
You call upon your blank thoughts as you try
To fit in where you missed her
You missed the chance to stop living a lieThe last time you cared about anything
The last time you allowed yourself to be seen
So pretentious your lies unrelenting disguise
Creating tears in your eyes your mind withers and diesPretending to be something you are not
Somewhere in the middle
You are now caught
You've never seen, who you really areI don't ever want to see
I don't ever want to be like you
Hollow Man, I don't care what you give
Hollow Man, you can't live like thisI don't ever want to see
I don't ever want to be like you
Hollow Man, I don't care what you give
Hollow Man, you can't live like thisI can't remember, the last time you cared about anything
The last time you allowed yourself to be seen
So pretentious your lies, unrelenting disguise

Creating tears in your eyes, your mind withers and diesPretending to be something you are not

Somewhere in the middle

You are now caught

You've never seen, who you really areI don't ever want to see

I don't ever want to be like you

Hollow Man, I don't care what you give

Hollow Man, you can't live like thisI don't ever want to see

I don't ever want to be like you

Hollow Man, I don't care what you give

Hollow Man, you can't live like this, noWhere is your sanity?

Where is your sanity?

Where is your sanity?
