Saddest Thing I Know

Cherry Poppin' Daddies

I hate myself
We'll have that in common
Although I've gotten most everything I wanted
Hope is still a flicker in the dark
Somewhere in the distance, a mysterious spark
If we never meet
That would be the saddest thing I know.
There's got to be somebody out there
Someone who burns like a flame
It's a beautiful night by the fountain
But I'm all alone
I don't know your name[Dewey solos]This is to you, if you're out there
My love, you seem to be detained
I don't deserve you, but it's too cruel
That you're not here with meFlickering... the saddest thing...
I know
