

White Dress

Jhanra

You never cease
To amaze me
How did I
Get so lucky

Not a day goes forgotten
Lost or neglected
I'm so affected
By your affection

Someday I
Hope to wear a white dress
Walk down the aisle
Where both our eyes will have met
Already have my vows
All written out
If I could tell you now

Darling you've see it all
Every stained flaw
Broke down the walls
To build a home

We talk like best friends
Play like children
Argue now and then
Like wife and husband

Someday I
Hope to wear a white dress
Walk down the aisle
Where both our eyes will have met
Already have my vows
All written out
If I could tell you now

The close I am to you
Is as close
As I've ever been before
And it's more than I'll

Ever need

Yeah

Someday I

Hope you wear a nice suit

Stand in front of the aisle

Watching me watching you

Already have my vows

All written out

If I could tell you now

If I could tell you now

You never cease

To amaze me

How did I

Get this lucky
