Bleed the Sky

Reveille

systematically layered beneath the understatedborder land calling me home curiosity has taken its toll empathetic- into the darkness i fall alone hear what you say when you whisper the truth of your lies i wanna fly over falling stars how i love breathing into this lifelessness reminds me i can't paint like godsay no more-carve me a smile, make it deep and wide and mortal drain my eyes 'til the sky goes pop bleeding out in my own idolatry for you my adoration dripping drop by drop by drop can't get enough symphony in her eyes to eden enter me my last chance for hope had a god but i fucked her all away because she couldn't feel what i wrotesay no more-i've heard enough to know i wanna bleed the sky bleed the sky tonight- say goodnight tonight
