

Killercrush

Millencolin

I wonder what the best thing is to have
A face or to have charm?
Well, my girl's two faced and she's a fart alarm
Well lost some charm See I'm not blind and I do have nose
But I don't wanna use it now
I rather try to follow my heart this time
Well I ride Good looks, it makes me nervous
I need someone who's not perfect soul It's you, you're overweight and lovely
Yes it's true, a pig in walking shoes
You drool every time we kiss, I must say you rule
I'm falling in love with you, yes I do I know that all those trendy girls
Would leave me when I'm broke
And also be disgusted when I smoke, no joke And I don't need a model
Unless she has a major body It's you, you're overweight and lovely
Yes it's true, a pig in walking shoes
You drool every time we kiss, I must say you rule
And I'm falling in love with you Just an ounce of human touch
I realize it's a killercrush, I'm dancing
Yeah I'm overjoyed I took a chance on you 'cause I wanted some romance
To and now I'm happy as can be
'Cause this super sized woman means all to me It's you, you're overweight and lovely
Yes it's true, a pig in walking shoes
You drool every time we kiss, I must say you rule
And I'm falling in love with you, yes I do Oh I'm falling in love with you
