

Who Will Be Winning

Kid Norkjen

Who will be winning written by Norvald Kjenstad copyright Tono 2013

Maybe tomorrow
Maybe to night
I am ready for the fight

It was raining outside
I was closing my eyes
Turning down all whys

Winning for money
Winning for pride
Who will be winning?
Who will be winning this game?

The river was running
So wild and free
This is there I will be

Call me next Sunday
Call me at nine
And bring me some of your wine

Winning for money
Winning for pride
Who will be winning?
Who will be winning this game?
Winning this game
There`s a winner - in all of us
This morning I will full field my dreams

I wake up early
The day is here
There is nothing to fear

It`s only a game
I must not be scared
Course I am fully prepared

Winning for money
Winning for pride

Who will be winning?
Who will be winning this game?
