

Echo

Stars In Stereo

I'm going down into the unknown
I wanna see where the shadows lie
I'm gonna fight until I get enough
I'm gonna bleed just the way I like
I'm gonna scream until you're listening
I want you to feel pain like I feel inside
On your knees with a blindfold
Never knowing if I'll pull the trigger
When I was weaker I didn't know best
Now I'm the keeper of all you have left
From the ember I remember
I will never close my eyes and fall
From the embers I ignite tonight
In the ashes of an echo
You're holding on like an infection
I got the cure and I'm getting closer
With every hit, with every shot I take
I feel alive cause I'm taking over
In the ashes of an echo
When I was weaker I didn't know best
Now I'm the keeper of all you have left
From the ember I remember
I will never close my eyes and fall
From the embers I ignite tonight
