Inflict

Amaran

All of my nightmares you leave me sleeping Weighing my eyes down, everything's fadingIn the gutter of my mind
I found my hero See I actually believed in such a thing as a hero
And I crawled on my knees just to please you I'm just like all the rest, the second best
The one who takes what she can getFrom where you're standing
I never suffer
Made of concrete I am breathless
You must've confused me with someone else Someone who settles for being someone's whore Someone more like yourselfAnd all the nightmares that I have You own my awakening But you leave me sleeping on Enjoying the thrill of my scream
