

Hold Me Now

Kirk Franklin & The Family

The spring of April is gone
The leaves have all turned brown
The children are all grown up
And there's no one around I'm looking over my life and all the mistakes I made
And I'm afraid
Afraid Somebody told me that You would wash all my sins
And cleanse me from the scars that are so deep within
So I'm calling to You
If you can hear me
I don't know how
I was wondering can you hold me now You are the only one that's patient when I fall
Your angels come to save me every time I call
You don't laugh at me when I make mistakes and cry
You're not like men
You understand me See people change one day
They don't like you the next they do
I wish that everyone could love me just like You
So here I am this sinful man peace won't allow I was wondering can you hold me now
I was wondering can you hold me now To every broken person that may hear this song
To every boy or girl that feels their smile is gone
I know exactly how it feels to lay in the bed at night And cry
And cry
Don't you worry God is faithful and He cares
About the tears you've cried and the pain you feel is there
When you are weak that's when he's strong
Even though you don't know how God can and he will hold you now
God can and he will hold you now
God can and he will hold you now Don't you worry he can hold you now
