Versequence

Verse 1:
When the snow falls
And you're in pain
Do you think that
The white color of the Cold snow would turn
Red into a wonderful
Bed of roses?

Are my eyes closed?
If they open
Will they see that
The sky is in the color
Of blue and not grey?
Or am I inside a cage,
So broken?

Chorus:
Let's dance tonight
To the clock
Burning every second away,
Second away, second away
The fading light, leaves everything
In darkness swallowed and gone,
Swallowed and gone, swallowed and gone

Verse 2:
There are shadows in the closet,
I said when I was just a little girl
Foolish and young with an Innocent tongue, outspoken
Are they still there?
If they are gone,
Will they be waiting and
Greeting me with warm
Welcomes and smiles,
As I go with them

While I'm broken?

Repeat Chorus

Ha huh ha huh
Ha huh ha huh
