The Trident

Aeternus

i am a daimon among twelve you say "you will", i say "i am" the ouranic and the cthonic your world will crumble at our feet i can destroy all of earth my mighty sea may drown you all give us sacrifice, keep the rite and forever you'll have day and night none defies me in my domain nor do i mock my brothers names i am one in the cosmic order divided in fate and honour the sea is my weapon the honorless my foe the water you are upon is the trident, conos' son
