Art of Virtue

Adrienne Young / Will Kimbrough
Gonna start a revolution,
Made of action, not of words
Practicing the Art of Virtue
A joy ride on the learning curve
Gonna keep my eyes wide open
Till I have something to say
Start to put my house in order
Save some money for a rainy day
Gonna do just what I ought to Finish what I say Ill do
Spend my time on something useful
Worry less and speak the truth
Id like to learn some moderation
Know just when enoughts enough
Meditate on being tranquil
Injure none and bear no grudge
I let go of my resistance
Son of God is inside me
Im waitin for the real thing, honey
Aint nothin wrong with chastity
If I could walk the path of Jesus
Live each day the best I can
Follow in those humble footsteps
I might reach the promised land
Gonna start a revolution
Made of action, not of words
Practicing the Art of Virtue
A joy ride on a learning curve
Come and join this revolution
Made of action, not of words
Practicing the Art of Virtue
Its all the rage, oh have you heard?
