Midnight Rendezvous

Perfect Confusion

Driving faster than you want me to
Can't help myself when I'm alone with you, alright, alright
I've passed the limit and there's no way back
Your kind of love gives me a heart attack, alright, alright'Cause baby can't you see
We need to spend some time alone
We need to see some dreams come true
I wanna feel me touching you
We need a midnight rendezvousOn the freeway with the throttle down
You drive me crazy as we drive around, alright, all night
The way you look tonight you aim to please
The dress you're wearin' is way past your knees, alright, alright'Cause baby can't you see
We need to spend some time alone
We need to see some dreams come true
I wanna feel you touching me
We need a midnight rendezvousMidnight, midnight rendezvous
Midnight, midnight rendezvous
Midnight, midnight rendezvous
Yeah, midnight, midnight rendezvous, yeah yeahAll I really wanna do
Spend some time alone with you, yeah
A midnightBaby, baby can't you see
Baby, baby you and me
Baby, baby can't you see
Baby, baby you and me
A midnight rendezvousYeah, all I really wanna do
Oh I really wanna fuck you
Oh, midnight rendezvous
