

Just Can't Help It (feat. Ed Two)

Samuel Larsen

Oh, hey, (just can't help it) ooh, ay, oh you never quit you never stop all my knees you're shown enough Begging please its like you're the boss You see, I'm me
I had a job but I'm losing it can't believe that she's doing this can't you see what you're doin' to me its not fair to me and I can't believe Yeah, ooh, oh
let you know uh baby I just can't help it no, oh ho, oh
Let you know, you know that I just can't hell it my body shakes when you slow down acting like it might happen now Dancing like Good guy I mean and no one else that you can(?) before I don't get what you asked me for I don't think i continue no more you better know, oh oh, oh let you know oh baby I just can't help it, no oh
let you know
you know that I just can't help it you got me something honey spending all my money
all the time (?)
just can't help it
you've got me something honey
just can't help it
oh baby I just can't help it

you know that I can't help it

Tell me right now you love it we don't gonna do that fussy listen to your god just trust it

Like now must see

We popping

When the peach drop

Going Like season something like deep up hearing you scream

But before the detox it is in like Headpods why on the cheese pie team you lean

I dont really talk about it

In bottom in the second time im cry like with the pretty little liars so you know that i am that you got what i designed

Baby let me take you higher like we know fighter ?

Everything i pass you walking that walk

Cause I hear on

Got me rocking it off

And you got what a i want

Is what im feeling selfish

I feeling selfish

I just cant help it

oh h oh oh

no oh oh oh oh
