

Miley Cyrus Wins the Race

DTCV

Suddenly I heard you talk
Well you see I'm never bored
Would you stay, I really want to play
I'll change your mind As for me, I was alone
If memory serves right, you didn't know
Oh but I'm one of a kind
So stay for a while Savior, I have my own
Sinner, how do we love
My young years, love lost and gained
This one will last...
Oh my heart is big and bare
Fold it in your hands
If I could turn it all around
I'd do the same
My young years of trial and pain
All crumble in our hands
And if you burn them to the ground
I'll do the same Burn them to the ground
Burn them to the ground
