Grey View

LowCityRain

Grey view coldly slithering
Indifferently floating
I can't sleep
I feel half without youAnd I Sink
You were Smoky
You were tragic
And I can't sleep without youUs lying in the bed
Your smile
Your laughter
Your fragrance
You showed something I thought I lost
But I'm lost with youYour eyes feel like the big city
One glowing window in the nightTwo sad lovers
Lonely dancing
Lonely dancing
