Sworn In

I've built myself a stage to plea
The curtains closed, it's only me
It's only me to beg and to plead
Left for dead and left to bleed
Thirteen struck dead, unlucky at best
I'll never rest, in hell I'm just a guest
So listen closely because I'll only say it once before departing
When the show ends it's really only starting...
