

It Hurts To Want It So Bad

Van Morrison

It's a lot like bein' little
And wantin' a brand new toy.

It's a lot like bein' little
And wantin' a baby boy

To call brother,

And it hurts

When you want it

So bad.

It's a lot like bein' a young boy
Who cannot make the team.

It's a lot like bein' a young girl
Who cannot help but dream

Of her best friend's brother,

And it hurts

When you want it

So bad.

When it's love

You've had and lost,

If that's the worst hurt

You've ever had,

Waiting for a new love

To come along,

And maybe, baby,

[it's] just as bad.

It's a lot like bein' a man

When you['ve] no one to call your own,

And it's a lot like bein' a woman

When you want to make a home

And be a mother,

And it hurts when you want it

So bad.

Hey, yeah.

When it's love

You've had and lost,

That's the worst hurt

You've ever had,

Waiting, waiting for a new love

To come along,

It may be, baby,
May be just as bad, lord.
It's a lot like bein' a man
When you['ve] no one to call your own,
And
It's a lot like bein' a woman
When ya' want
To make a home
And be a mother,
And it hurts
When ya' want it so bad.
When ya' want it,
Want it so bad.
When ya', when ya', when ya', when ya', when ya', when ya',
When ya' want it.
When ya, when ya', when ya', when ya', when ya', when ya', when ya', when ya', when ya', when ya', when ya',
When ya, when ya', when ya', when ya', when ya', when ya', when ya',
When ya', when ya', when ya', when ya', when ya', when ya', when ya', when ya',
[when ya' want it so bad.]
