

All I Want Is You

112

2000, 2000, 112, 112

And we won't stop 'cuz we can't stop
No we won't stop 'cuz we can't stop I heard you got plenty of money, plenty of clothes
An escalade a porch and a house on the hill
A platinum watch, platinum rings, platinum cars
A condo in Beverly Hills And they say that you're a millionaire
But baby I don't really care
'Cuz I just need for you to see
That all I want is you I heard you got Gucci belts to match ya boots
Versache wear, Chanel and Fendi suits
Purple light Benz, purple light Lexus coop
And you make sure ya friends are 'bout it too They say that you're a millionaire
But baby I don't really care
'Cuz I just want for you to see
That all I want is you baby All I really want is you
Believe me 'cuz what I say is true
Not interested is what you do
'Cuz all I really want is you I heard you got sexy eyes, sexy lips, sexy feet
You got sex appeal the way you wear your hair
The way you dress and girl the way you make me feelin'
Makes me want you more and more You're everything I'm lookin' for
And I just need for you to see
That all I want is you I love your personality
I think that you're all that a woman should be
Like a picture out of a magazine or a vision of my wildest dreams
Make me want you more and more You're everything I'm lookin' for
And I just need for you to see
That all I really want is you All I really want is you
Believe me 'cuz what I say is true
Not interested in what you do
'Cuz all I really want is you All I really want is you
Believe me 'cuz what I say is true
Not interested in what you do
'Cuz all I really want is you All I really want is you
Believe me 'cuz what I say is true
Not interested in what you do
'Cuz all I really want is you All I really want is you
Believe me 'cuz what I say is true
Not interested in what you do

'Cuz all I really want is youAll I really want is you
Believe me 'cuz what I say is true
Not interested in what you do
'Cuz all I really want is you
