I come bearing legacy, that we caused jointly in our dawning land
I come with delivery, and I have left it in my mourning bandI bring you my history that I expect your tender arms around
Give it love and think of me
These are the letters from a compoundSee the dawning of novelty (the dawning of novelty)
Where we embrace the kind of subtlety (embrace the, the subtlety)
Time finally caught up with me (finally caught up with me)
A modelling image of the fleeing fugitive (fleeing fugitive)Toned down but playful
Say your greetings with goodbyes
Your cup is brim full
Sorrow sinking with a smileNow we found a cure
Returning to the shore
Change is always given to decide just who it's for (x2)Don't expect to hear from me
'Cause I have got to feed our hungry mouths
I do enjoy your company
But we must work to keep you contentI see the better and the worse in me (better and the worse in me)
I embrace the kind of subtlety (embrace the, the subtlety)
Courage finally caught up with me (finally caught up with me)
A modelling image of the fleeing fugitive (fleeing fugitive)Now we found a cure
Returning to the shore
Change is always given to decide just who it's for (x4)Toned down but playful
Say your greetings with goodbyes
Your cup is brim full
Sorrow sinking with a smile
