Midnight Sun

Duran Duran

As I watch you flickering slowly
In the shadows nothing to hold
It's as if I don't recall our time before
And would it be so wrong
Not to rememberThere are times I look at you differently
Like I've never seen you before
Funny, after all we've done
You could be someone I don't know at all
Don't know you at allCatch me, I don't want to fallBut you pull the mountain from under me
Look, I'm dangling up in the blue
And it's a cartoon kind of eternity
Before I drop down to you
What am I supposed to do now?There is something beautiful shining
In the hollow knot of your head
Funny, for a while it seemed
To come from the sky but it's in your head
Yes, it fills your headYou and I don't always fly
Let me down, I want to fall
Deep into the dark
But I'll come back to youAnd I'll always know how to find you
'Cause you shine like the midnight sun
