

Hold a Candle

Jessie James Decker

Hm, hm hm, hm
I got plans this Friday, Saturday too
Hell, most everyday I got something to do
And lonely don't own me, there's somebody who wants me
It always feels right till I wear off the new My heart isn't broken, it's sleeping alone
Every fire I try to start, just goes up in smoke
I hate to admit it, but the stone cold truth
Is nobody, nobody, nobody holds a candle to you
My friends like the guy I'm seeing these days
Oh, he makes me laugh, but not in the same way
You laughed over nothing, I was stupid for running
I think it scared me how easy loving you came, oh oh oh, oh My heart isn't broken, it's sleeping alone
But every fire I try to start, just goes up in smoke
I hate to admit it, but the stone cold truth
Is nobody, nobody, nobody holds a candle to you, yeah
Yeah, hm
I hate to admit it, but the stone cold truth
Is nobody, nobody, nobody holds a candle to you, oh
Nobody, nobody, nobody, oh
Holds a candle to you, ooh ooh ooh, ooh ooh, no
