Panda Bear

I only feel a chill
Whenever I come out from my shell
I only feel a chill
Whenever I come out from my shell
I'd surely lie if I said that I was sure
That it might work out, work out, work out
Now I won't let it slide
No, I won't let it slip up
Now I won't let it slide
No, I won't let it slip up
No, I won't do
Found a way and I feel like
I shouldn't let go
Drop a bomb on the spots
Where my doubt streams grow
What to do when the things
That I want don't allow
For the handful of mouths
That I'm trying to feed
Got to do
What you've got to do
What you've got to do
What you've got to do
What weighs on weighs on my mind
So I can't get sleeping at night
Say can I make a bad mistake?
Say what it is I want to say, say
Say what?
Say can I make a bad mistake?
Say what it is I want to say, say
Say what?
Say can I make a bad mistake?
Say what it is I want to say, say
Say what?
