Come On Back To Me

Slamcreepers

Youve been hiding now for so long
Never understanding why
Running far away from the truth
And all along chasing after liesI have loved you from the beginning
Long before you knew my name
Even though youve broken my heart
Ill love you just the same, Ill love you anywayNever mind your worries, never mind your fears
They can only take you far from me
When you feel theres nowhere left for you to turn
Well, I got all you want and everything you need
Come on back to me, come on back to me
Come on girlDo you believe in second chances
Or in a love that never fades?
Put your faith in what you cant see
Just put your hand in mine, Ill show you the wayNever mind your worries, never mind your fears
They can only take you far from me
Well, I got all you want and everything you need
Come on back to me, come on back to me
Come on back to me love , come on back to me girl, alrightNever mind your worries, never mind your fears
They can only take you far from me
Well, I got all you want and everything you need
Come on back to me yeah, come on back to me
Come on back to me love, come on back to me, yeahCome on back, come on back, come on back to me, yeah
Come on back, come on back, come on back to me, yeah yeah
Come on back to me, yeah
