House of Large Sizes

I work so hard, I clean my (?)
Try to stay between the lines
I almost lost my mind
I have to show what I can do
Have to prove myself to you
Again
Not again...
East is feelin' good today
I had a visit in a dream
So real it seemed
To me
I have to show what I can do
Have to give myself to you
Again
East is feelin' good today
He don't beleive in the Golden Rule
I trust you once man, and I was a fool
Now that's stupid
He don't beleive in you-know-who
I trust you once man, and I was a fool
