Life Goes On

PFR

The sun will shine I'll smile from time to time
And sing the song 'cause life goes onBut it don't mean a thing
Without You and the love You bring
It won't mean a thing without YouThe wounds will heal starting over ain't no big deal
They rebuild Rome and life goes onBut it don't mean a thing
Without You and the love You bring
It won't mean a thing without YouThe lesson learned we all must take out turn
And carry on 'cause life goes onBut it don't mean a thing
Without You and the love You bring
No it won't mean a thing
Without You and the love You bring
No it won't mean a thing without You
Without You
Without You
Without You
