

Love Without Fear

Katie Armiger

I see myself in your eyes
And suddenly there's nothing left for me to hide
I used to be so scared of this
And now you've gone and changed it all with just a kiss
I held back but you held on
Now we have everything we'll ever want
A love without fences, a love without walls
A love where we're taking and giving it all
A love without limits where we can be free
To follow our hearts wherever they lead
Baby, that's why we're here to love without fear
I lose myself in your touch
And finally I find that I am strong enough
To listen to this voice within
Telling me to throw all caution to the wind
My heart beats like thunder and I am not afraid
'Cause baby you showed me the way
A love without fences, a love without walls
A love where we're taking and giving it all
A love without limits where we can be free
To follow our hearts wherever they lead
Baby, that's why we're here to love without fear
A love without fences, a love without walls
A love where we're taking and giving it all
A love without limits where we can be free
To follow our hearts wherever they lead
Baby, that's why we're here
Baby, that's why we're here to love without fear
A love without fear
