32 Flavors

Elle Varner

Squint your eyes and look closer
I'm not between you and your ambition!
I am poster girl with no poster
I am 32 flavors and then some
I'm beyond your peripheral vision
So you might wanna turn your head
Cause one day you might find you are hungry
And eat most of the words you just
Said, said, said....
Yo
I just gotta say something right quick
All right, growing up nobody understood me!
They didn't understand what I was doing, what I was about
Why I had glasses on, why I wore what I wore and this that and the third
But you know what?
I'm here now, and I'm doing my thing
And what I wanna tell you is
You out there, you're different,
You got your own swag, you got your own shit going on
Don't let anyone in this world take it away from you
Cause that's all you got!
Squint your eyes and look closer
I'm not between you and your ambition!
I am poster girl with no poster
I am 32 flavors and then some
I'm beyond your peripheral vision
So you might wanna turn your head
Cause one day you might find you are hungry
And eat most of the words you just
Said, said, said....
