

A House Is Not A Home

Joe Sample

A chair is still a chair
Even when there's no one sittin' there
    But a chair is not a house
    And a house is not a home
    When there's no one there
        To hold you tight
        An' no one there
        You can kiss goodnight
        A room is still a room
Even when there's nothin' there but gloom
    But a room is not a house
    And a house is not a home
        When the two of us
            Are far apart
            An' one of us
            Has a broken heart
        Now an' then I call your name

An' suddenly your face appears
    But it's just a crazy game
    When it ends, it ends in tears
        Darling, have a heart
    Don't let one mistake keep us apart
        I'm not meant to live alone
        Turn this house into a home
            When I climb the stair
                An' turn the key
                Oh, please be there
                Still in love with me
            I'm not meant to live alone
            Turn this house into a home
    When I climb the stair an' turn the key
        Oh, please be there
        Still in love with me
