Mighty Love

Tim Timmons

You should know me by now
I've always been straight with you
I've always tried to sing
About the truth, the way I see it
In a mixed up world
Where the truth is hard to find
I ain't no spiritual Superman
Don't always give a shiny bright example
Of what a believer ought to be
I ain't never parted the ocean
Though I really think I could
If I had the faith of a mustard seed
Like the Bible says I should
I ain't never moved a mountain
I ain't never felt that need
But the one thing
God, has taught me to see
I can have faith, a mountain of hope
I can even speak with tongues of angels
Tell you everything I know
But it doesn't mean a thing in this world
Without a mighty love
I can be strong, I can stand tall
I can point squarely at the mountain
And command that it be gone
But it doesn't mean a thing in this world
Without a mighty love
I ain't standin' no mount
I'm not tryin' to preach to ya
And tell you that I've found all the easy answers
When half the time I can't even find my keys
But I feel like a regular Billy Graham
When I start talkin' 'bout my Jesus
And all that He's done for me
Don't you know that I've received forgiveness
Through no effort of my own
I've been given so much mercy
So I'll be the last to throw a stone
And I apologize if you think

That I'm coming on too strong
But there's just one thing
I want you to know
I can have faith, a mountain of hope
I can even speak with tongues of angels
Tell you everything I know
But it doesn't mean a thing in this world
Without a mighty love
I can be strong, I can stand tall
I can point squarely at the mountain
And command that it be gone
But it doesn't mean a thing in this world
Without a mighty love
There's no denying the power of love
Just open your heart and believe in me
I'll shout it from the mountains
Tellin' the whole world about it
Talkin' about mighty love
I just can't deny it
Ain't nothing else like it
Talking about mighty love
Nothing means a thing in this world
Without a mighty love
I can be strong, I can stand tall
I can point squarely at the mountain
And command that it be gone
But it doesn't mean a thing in this world
Without a mighty love
I can have faith, a mountain of hope
Nothing means a thing in this world
Without a mighty love
Mighty, mighty, mighty
