Happy Face

Kim McLean

I woke up this morning
The sunshine was shining
I put on my happy face
I'm living, I'm able
I'm breathing, I'm grateful
To put on my happy face
Woke up and realized
This world's not so bad after all
Looked at it through a child's eyes
And I saw these beautiful
Things that you never think about
Like the ocean, moonlight, stars and clouds
It's amazing how we don't
Appreciate our blessings
There's plenty of people who don't like me
But there's ten times more who love me
And I love myself
Sometimes, it gets tough, it gets tough
But I can't give up, can't give up
Just take a deep breath, close my eyes
Feel the love and give a smile
I woke up this morning
The sunshine was shining
I put on my happy face
I'm living, I'm able
I'm breathing, I'm grateful
To put on my happy face
I woke up this morning
The sunshine was shining
I put on my happy face
I'm living, I'm able
I'm breathing, I'm grateful
To put on my happy face
It's me, and I just wanna be happy
Uh, just be happy, uh, just be happy
Today is the day, I am willing to say
I will put all the past behind me, no more enemies
Ready 'cause, I'm living in this world
I wanna make a change, I'm gonna make a change

Put on my happy face
I woke up this morning
The sunshine was shining
I put on my happy face
I'm living, I'm able
I'm breathing, I'm grateful
To put on my happy face
I woke up this morning
The sunshine was shining
I'm living, I'm able
Everything's gonna be all right
Everything's gonna be okay
Everything's gonna be all right
Everything's gonna be okay
Gonna be all right
Everything's gonna be all right
Everything's gonna be all right
Everything's gonna be okay
Gonna be all right
Everything's gonna be all right
Everything's gonna be okay
Gonna be all right
Everything's gonna be all right
Everything's gonna be all right
Everything's gonna be okay
I woke up this morning
The sunshine was shining
I'm living, I'm able
I'm breathing, I'm grateful
To put on my happy face
I woke up this morning
The sunshine was shining
I'm living, I'm able
I'm breathing, I'm grateful
To put on my happy face
I woke up this morning
With a happy face
I'm flying, I'm flying
I'm flying, I'm flying

I'm flying, I'm flying
I'm flying, I'm flying
I'm flying, I'm flying
I'm flying, I'm flying
Flying, flying
Flying, flying
Oh, I'm flying
