Something Left

Arbors Lane

These days there's proof I'm haunted
Sleepwalking, hopeless talking
I like to hope there's something left
Eyes open, heart still pumping
Chest heaving, Sick but running

In the shadows
No one can know
If hope's a ship sailed when the beacons off today
Come the future
or even sooner
Though not all is as sure
The sun rises everyday

Blessed be this heavy hole in my chest
I'm passing off this pain
As breathing like I'm alive when I'm dead
I can't forget
I can't forget

All I know is there's something left

In the shadows
No one can know
If hope's a ship sailed when the beacons off today
Come the future
or even sooner
Though not all is as sure
The sun rises everyday

I know there's something left

I'm breathing,
Chest heaving,
It won't always be like this
It's not a lot but it's all that I have

It's not a lot but it's all that I have
It's not a lot but it's all that I have
It's not a lot but it's all that I have

In the shadows
No one can know
If hope's a ship sailed when the beacons off today
Hey
Come the future
or even sooner
Though not all is as sure
The sun rises everyday
Hey
(It rises everyday)
