Ozone

Fuel

All you suckers
I wanna make her go
I wanna make her come
I wanna give her away
Don't wanna feel no pain
Don't wanna feel no shame
Don't wanna feel this way
Well, I'm so alone here
Why must I be?
And I'm the one she calls Ozone, baby
She waits alone for me to come down
But I wanna fly high like a silly angel
Aim for the sky, straight into the sun
I wanna make her feel
I wanna make it real
I wanna push her away
She wants to keep me here
She wants to hold me dear
She wants to make me stay
She's so alone here
She don't need me
And I'm the one she calls Ozone, baby
She waits alone for me to come down
But I wanna fly high like a silly angel
Aim for the sky, straight into the sun
My sun, on you, burning, singe you
Confined inside, rot from my lies, my lies, sucker
I wanna push you down
I wanna steal your crown
I wanna make you cry
I'll only break your pride
And eat you up inside
Why should you even try?
And I'm so alone here
Why must I be?
And I'm the one, she calls Ozone, baby
She waits alone for me to come down
But I wanna fly high like a silly angel
Aim for the sky, straight into the sun

And I'm the one, she calls Ozone baby
She waits alone for me to come down
But I wanna fly high like a silly angel
Aim for the sky, straight into the sun
Well, burning my sun
Suckers, suckers, suckers
