Red Lady Lyrics (1969)

i see the red wind blowing filling my eyes a pair its crazy but im knowing that you donâ€™t really care I donâ€™t think whats makin me feelin be sure aint the tea thats inside of me and now you started singin red lady your just fine

your hand painted garden has every colour there red lady youâ€™ve forgotten to paint your shiny hair there youâ€™stand just fanning your pretty face not a care downing your somber place and now youâ€™ve started singin

theres nothing to said concerning me you see its really to be showing the something that ill be I canâ€™t think whats makin me feelin be
