

Black Unicorn

Brimstone Coven

Born inside an inferno, blessed with magic and sin
With the rage of a thousand demons, burning deep from within Crimson eyes of fire, eyes of flame burning bright
Nostrils fuming with sulfur smoke, noble creature of night
Dark creation of Lucifer, God of vengeance and greed
Jet black stallion of waste and woe, Hell's evil steed
Black Unicorn
Silent apparition, like a ghost in the night
Black hooves gallop through brimstone fire, he's the absence of light
Fangs are dripping with ancient blood, taking innocent lives
Don't be one of his victims, no... lord he'll be your demise
