Never Give In

Black Veil Brides

A reason, a victim,
A shadow vacant in the sky.
You yearn for what's missing,
Your power hidden in the night.
An angel a demon, (a demon!)
The parts you play on lonesome nights.
The damage, inflicted,
The pain and lust they leave behind.
Never give in,
Never back down,
Never give in!
We're soldiers, in season,
We can bring change before we die.

Through tails of their beatings,
To feel what lies beneath our eyes.
Never give in,
Never back down,
Never give in,
Never back down,
When your life feels lost,
(Fight against all odds!)
Never give in,
(Never back down!).
Never give in,
Never back down,
Never give in,
Never back down,
When your life feels lost,
(Fight against all odds!)
Never give in,
(Never back down!).
