

My Bloody Valentine

Christina Milian

I, can smell your voice
I can taste your face
Cant wait till it goes away
But oh I know to let it go Dont let it show
Hurts so much, and no one knows
and no one knows
and no one knows
and no one knows
and no one knows
I, slept in your arms
That sweet charm only brought me harm
I will cry and cry for you to change
But the more we change we stay the same Kept my mouth closed no one knows
and no one knows
and no one knows
and no one knows
and no one knows
and no one knows Eh I lived my life for you and all you did was make me a fool knowing you just took and took boy your so crule
But shame on me for trying to play it all cool

You made my wrongs look so right
The days I spent crying about you lasted through the night
Oh I heard you down, I stayed around at the door in my Christian Dior
Everyone knows
They know, they know, they know
They know, they know
They know, they know
You, take this loss Forgetting you wont take that long
Now I, wont need your help
See I can do thaaaat all by myself
Everyone knows
They know, they know,
Everyone knows

They know, they know,
Everyone knows
They know, they know,
Everyone knows
They know, they know,
They know, they know,
They know, they know,
They know, they know,
They know, they know.
