King

Fireball Ministry

if i was listening and knew i shouldn't be made all the threats again the pain is deafening the jury couldn't win and put the verdict in like many times before they closed the coffin doorleave it all if you had it before turn it out if you wanted it more if it was all wrong the first time it's the last time if i was born non believing unbelievinghe tried to be defined and all the childrfen whined it killed the last of them the king would fall againleave it all if you had it before turn it out if you wanted it more if it was all wrong the first time it's the last time if i was born non believing unbelieving

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/