Hey little sister, come out and play.
You look so peaceful. Why don't you stay?
I guess I should have known that he'd come for you.
I guess I'm all alone and he'll find me too.

Hey little dreamer, lay down your head.
You can rest now. It's time for bed.
Your blanket keeps you safe. The piano chimes.
I kiss your dearest face for the final time.

Hey little darling, we grew so old.
You're in the window of my soul.
The sun begins to set as you leave the room.
Your tiny footsteps will guide me soon.

Oh, I will see you soon. Oh, I will see you soon.

Oh, my little girl, we will never ever die.
Oh, we'll live forever, little girl, you and I.
Oh, little girl, we will never say good-bye.
Oh, we'll live forever, little girl, you and I.

Hey little sister, come out and play.
You look so peaceful. Why don't you stay?
