Tutti Frutti

New Order

Tutti frutti

Amore mio

Tutti frutti

No

Non Ã" ancora il momento di entrare

Non Ã" ancora il momento diLife is so crazy these days

I don't know how to adjust

Are we the master or slave?

Do we need passion or lust? Are we just caught in the days

So many words in a phrase

Life is so crazy these days

Life is so crazy these days You've got me where it hurts

But I don't really care

'Cause I know I'm OK

Whenever you are there

You take me to a place

I always wanna go

You always make me high

Whenever I feel lowI'm paper in your hand

I'm under your command

And I'll never let you go

'Cause you're that girlTutti fruttiI had a beautiful dream

For a picture so serene

But I don't know what it means love

I just want your loveGeneration's lost in space

Trying to find the human race

We're living in a state of grace

Where every scholar means a dollar And sometimes I just can't go on

I feel like I'm a setting sun

I know my eyes are burning bright

I just need you to make it rightYou've got me where it hurts

But I don't really care

'Cause I know I'm OK

Whenever you are there

You take me to a place

I always wanna go

You always make me high

Whenever I feel lowTutti fruttiYou've got me where it hurts

But I don't really care

'Cause I know I'm OK

Whenever you are there

You take me to a place

I always wanna go

You always make me high

Whenever I feel lowYou've got me where it hurts

But I don't really care

'Cause I know I'm OK

Whenever you are there

You take me to a place

I always wanna go

You always make me high

Whenever I feel lowWhenever I feel low

Whenever I feel low

Whenever I feel low

'Cause you're that girlTutti fruttiNon mi interessa il nome vero

Non mi interessa la vita reale

Quella canzone

E tu?

Sei tutti I frutti
